THE POWER OF TRANSPARENCY

4th Sunday of Easter

Speaker Donna Bondurant

April 25, 2021

Memory Verse: Act 4:25 (CEB), ²⁵ Therefore, after you have gotten rid of lying, Each of you must tell the truth to your neighbor because we are parts of each other in the same body.

"Honesty and transparency make you vulnerable. Be honest and transparent anyway." ~ Mother Teresa

Next Six Day Challenge (Daily Readings)

Monday: Ephesians 4:25

Tuesday: John 3:19-20

Wednesday: Psalm 23:1-6

Thursday: 1 John 3:2

Friday: Galatians 3:20

Saturday: James 5:16

Prayer of Confession

Lord, we want the easy way out! When things go wrong, we want to find who to blame for our misfortune. When we don't get what we want, we want to punish whoever prevents us from our goals and desires. We don't want to look at the ways in which we have perverted your love for us. We treat you as though you are a puppet who will dance to our demands. We act like spoiled children who want everything immediately, and who will become sullen and spiteful if injustice replaced your command to "love one another". And now we come to you, asking for forgiveness and healing. Our hearts and lives are empty without your love. Our spirits wither and die in this greedy wasteland. Give to us your life-sustaining bread. Heal our souls. Help us to truly worship you and to willingly work for healing and hope in this world. We ask these things in Jesus' Name,
