June 27, 2021

Our Mission

Develop Jesus-centered followers who are committed to helping usher in the Kingdom of God so that everyone can experience the love of Jesus and help change the world.

Our Vision

To create a spiritual community where individuals and families can come as they are, fall in love with Jesus, and experience the kingdom revolution.

Welcome, Home

Whatever your faith tradition, whatever your culture and race, whatever your age, atheist or agnostic, differing abilities, whatever your hurts, habits, or hang-ups, whatever has happened up until now, and whatever doubts, questions, or challenges you may have, may our kingdom community be a place of grace, healing, acceptance, connection, and revelation for you and your family. Welcome to our Jesus-centered family. Welcome, Home.

Reflection Questions:

1. What did you take away from today’s message and scripture reading?
2. Per Psalm 1, what does it mean to live a happy life vs. a wicked life?
3. What areas of your life are not God-centered? What people, places, and things do you need to change for those areas to become fully God-centered?

Psalm 1:1-6 (Common English Bible)

Psalm 1

doesn’t follow wicked advice,

doesn’t stand on the road of sinners,

and doesn’t sit with the disrespectful.

² Instead of doing those things,

these persons love the LORD’s Instruction,

and they recite God’s Instruction day and night!

³ They are like a tree replanted by streams of water,

which bears fruit at just the right time

and whose leaves don’t fade.

Whatever they do succeeds.

⁴ That’s not true for the wicked!

They are like dust that the wind blows away.

⁵ And that’s why the wicked will have no standing in the court of justice—

neither will sinners

in the assembly of the righteous.

⁶ The LORD is intimately acquainted

May God bless your hearing, understanding, and application of scripture!
