Reflection Questions

- How do you view the other 4,000 plus religions in the world? Misled? Delusional? Partial truth? Threat? The reason why the world is divided and messed up? Will they end up in hell? Not sure? Don't care? Maybe they're right, and we got it all wrong?
- Now come inside the walls of Christianity. There are over 43,000 Christian denominations around the globe as of 2012. That number is expected to grow to 55,000 by 2025. (Apply the same set of questions listed above to Christianity). What did you discover?
- Do you know anyone who practices Buddhism? If yes, how would gauge your relationship with them? What have you learned from their faith and spiritual practices? ·
- What did you learn today about Buddhism that will help you better practice spiritual principles?
- What do Jesus and Buddha have in common?
- What are their major differences?
- Is it possible for a Buddhist to get to heaven?
- As a Christian attempting to live a Jesus-centered life by following and worshipping a Jesus-looking God, how are you commanded to treat Buddhists and people from all walks of life and beliefs?
