Reflection Questions

- What is the biggest rejection you have ever experienced in your life? How did you handle it?
- What is the biggest rejection you have ever had to administer to someone else? How did they receive it?
- Why do you think the Israelites were so moved to reject God’s commands and promises repeatedly?
- Did God forget his promises to the Israelites, or are they acting out based on twisted perceptions of rejection?
- Why do you think the Jewish Christians Paul addresses in Romans 9:1-5 are rejecting Jesus’s commands and promises?
- How have you rejected the teachings, promises, and will of God?
- When you refused them, what was your motivation? A mild case of atheism? Peer pressure? Fear of what others may think? Or, simply a rebel without a cause?
- How do we have a loving and meaningful conversation with anyone who has rejected God’s teachings, promises, and will?
- Why is it imperative for a Christian to obey the instructions and will of God?
- What promises are available for the people who do? Is that the best news ever, or what?
