Isaiah 40:26-31 (CEB)

Power for the weary

<sup>26</sup> Look up at the sky and consider:

Who created these?

The one who brings out their attendants one by one,
summoning each of them by name.

Because of God's great strength and mighty power, not one is missing.

and declare, Israel,

“My way is hidden from the LORD,
my God ignores my predicament”?

<sup>28</sup> Don't you know? Haven't you heard?

The LORD is the everlasting God,
the creator of the ends of the earth.

He doesn't grow tired or weary.

His understanding is beyond human reach,

<sup>29</sup> giving power to the tired and reviving the exhausted.

<sup>30</sup> Youths will become tired and weary,
young men will certainly stumble;

<sup>31</sup> but those who hope in the LORD
will renew their strength;
they will fly up on wings like eagles;
they will run and not be tired;
they will walk and not be weary.

Barbara Ann Ecton-Sullens

October 18, 1955 – September 22, 2023

Barb was a professional driver for 30 years.

She often enjoyed riding her bike, serving at Church, & spending time with friends and family.

Barbara was an endearing soul.

She never met a stranger because anyone who met her fell in love with her Spirit and reverence for the Lord.

Her ministry was children and young adults; she loved sharing the gospel and the words of encouragement with those she encountered daily while riding her bike, working at Domino's, or just being at home with a group of family and friends at her kitchen table.

If Barb were her right now, she would ask us to keep the light on. She would say:

Deuteronomy 31:1-8 (CEB)

Moses announces his death

31 Then Moses said these words to all Israel, <sup>2</sup> telling them:

I'm 120 years old today. I can't move around well anymore. Plus, the LORD told me "You won't cross the Jordan River." <sup>3</sup> But the LORD your God, he's the one who will cross over before you! He's the one who will destroy these nations before you so you can displace them. Joshua too will cross over before you just like the LORD indicated. <sup>4</sup> The LORD will do to these enemies the same thing he did to the Amorite kings Sihon and Og, and to their land, when he destroyed them. <sup>5</sup> The LORD will lay them out before you, and you will do to them exactly what the command I've given you dictates. <sup>6</sup> Be strong! Be fearless! Don't be afraid and don't be scared by your enemies, because the LORD your God is the one who marches with you. He won't let you down, and he won't abandon you.

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses called Joshua and, with all Israel watching, said to him: "Be strong and fearless because you are the one who will lead this people to the land the LORD swore to their ancestors to give to them; you are the one who will divide up the land for them. <sup>8</sup> But the LORD is the one who is marching before you! He is the one who will be with you! He won't let you down. He won't abandon you. So don't be afraid or scared!"
